"... describes himself as a "cinematic historian," but insists: "I don't believe in official history. I don't accept the scenario of the JFK assassination we've been given, ..."

Mother Jones
March/April 1991